Description

throuRoof, a one-man-project from italy, comes up with an impressive 32 minute ambient-drone-monument.

The piece is an improvisation played with a broken Bontempi organ, guitar feedback and fieldrecordings, decomposed with analogic mixer, Dunlop Tape Delay, Echoplex and Revox.

There was no Overdubbing, no Remastering, no digital process except the rip on wav directly from reel to reel tape.

In throuRoof's own words:
"throuRoof is like flowing throught the roof during the dreams, a sensation of no time and space..."

That describes the effect of this massive work very exactly. You are very welcome to drift off and dream.
